Safety, Health, Environmental & Quality Statement of Intent Novati

Novati Management Systems scope, accredited to ISO9001, ISO14001 and ISO45001, relates to the provision of waste management brokerage services. Novati are an interface between waste producers and waste contractors.

Our objective is to meet and where possible, exceed the requirements of all applicable legislation. This will be achieved whilst addressing the needs of the business and maintaining our accredited Management System.

Wherever possible, Novati shall commit to the implementation of identified best practice through its Management Systems.

In particular we shall:

- Continue to develop a positive Safety, Health, Environmental & Quality culture throughout the business involving employees in the development and implementation processes.
- Ensure all employees, customers and contractors take responsibility for working in a manner that promotes quality, minimises the risk of harm to the environment and promotes the Health & Safety of employees, customers, contractors and members of the public.
- Assess the level of risk from all significant health, security, safety and environmental hazards and so far as reasonably practicable, ensuring that they are eliminated or adequately controlled.
- Provide appropriate leadership, information, systems of communication, instruction, development training, retraining and supervision to maintain and continuously improve the competence levels of all employees.
- Monitor and minimise the health, safety, and environmental impact of our business where reasonably practicable.
- Allocate sufficient financial and physical resources to achieve our business objectives.
- Accurately assess customer requirements, ensure that the quality of service delivered consistently meets or exceeds expectations and respond effectively to any concerns about the level of service provided.
- Regularly monitor, audit, and review our own, contractors' and customers performance to ensure continual improvement.

The Managing Director and Management Team are responsible for all the Safety, Health, Environmental & Quality aspects at Novati. They are supported in this role by the Safety, Health, Environment, and Quality Manager who, as a management representative is responsible for developing the Company's integrated management policies and procedures in line with current Health, Safety and Environmental legislation and for monitoring/auditing compliance with the systems.

This Policy Statement is reviewed at least annually, and is communicated to employees, contractors, and customers; prominently displayed for visitors and will be made available to the public and any other interested party on request.

Anti-Slavery & Human Trafficking Policy

Policy Statement

NOVATI is committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chains, consistent with our obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

We believe the risk of the Modern Slavery Act being breached by our directly employed staff is low.

We only operate in the UK and ensure that all recruitment and on-boarding comply fully with all relevant UK legislation and good practice.

The potential risk from our contractors is greater and therefore we expect high standards from all our contractors, suppliers and other business partners. Part of our supply chain and compliance management processes include specific prohibitions and compliance checks against the use of forced, compulsory or trafficked labour, or anyone held in slavery or servitude, whether adults or children.

We monitor the approach of our contractors in respect of compliance with the Modern Slavery Act by several means including:

- Checking the response to compliance questionnaires
- Carrying out contractor site audits to assess the policy and practice in respect of Modern Slavery Act Compliance
- Checking the Modern Slavery Policy where the contractor has an obligation to produce this
- Monitoring legitimate sources for any enforcement action taken against contractors for breach of Modern Slavery legislation.

We also check various legal documentations when recruiting, which include but not limited to:

- Passport
- Right to work in the UK
- UK bank account details
- Driving licence if applicable
- Formal educational qualifications

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another party to exploit them for personal or commercial gain. NOVATI has a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships. This includes implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure modern slavery is not taking place anywhere in the NOVATI business or supply chains.

This policy applies to all persons working for NOVATI or on our behalf in any capacity, including employees at all levels, directors, officers, agency workers, seconded workers, volunteers, interns, agents, contractors, external consultants, third-party representatives and business partners.

This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment, but we may amend it at any time.

Responsibility for the policy

The Board has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all those under our control comply with it. The Board will furthermore review the policy periodically to ensure compliance with good practice and legislative developments.

The Board shall also ensure that this policy is entirely compatible with all other NOVATI policies and procedures including Corporate Social Responsibility.

Line managers at all levels are responsible for ensuring those reporting to them understand and comply with this policy and are given adequate and regular training on it and the issue of modern slavery in supply chains.

Any employee may raise comments, suggestions and queries about this policy or its effective implementation and these will be considered by the Board in the interests of inclusion and continual improvement.

Compliance with the policy

The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of our business or supply chains is the responsibility of all those working for NOVATI. All employees are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy or to report any occurrence of actual or potential breach by others, whether fellow employees or external parties such as contractors.

All employees must notify their immediate manager as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with this policy has occurred or may occur in the future. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary proceedings.

If any employee is unsure about whether a particular act, the treatment of workers or their working conditions at any level of the supply chains constitutes or may constitute any of the various forms of modern slavery, the concern must be raised with their manager or any Director.

NOVATI aims to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken. We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of reporting, in good faith, their suspicion that modern slavery of whatever form is or may be taking place in any part of NOVATI business including supply chains. Detrimental treatment in this context includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If an employee believes that they have suffered any such treatment, they should inform the People Director immediately. If the matter is not remedied for the employee concerned, they should raise it formally using NOVATI Grievance Procedure.

Communication and awareness of this policy

Training on this policy, and on the risk that NOVATI business faces from modern slavery in its operations and supply chains, forms part of the induction process for all individuals who work for NOVATI, and regular awareness will be provided as necessary.

NOVATI has a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and this will be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and reinforced as appropriate thereafter.

Breaches of this Policy

Any NOVATI employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for misconduct or gross misconduct.

NOVATI may terminate their relationship with any individual, contractor, supplier, business partner or other organisation working on behalf of NOVATI or who supply products and services to NOVATI or directly to NOVATI Customers.
